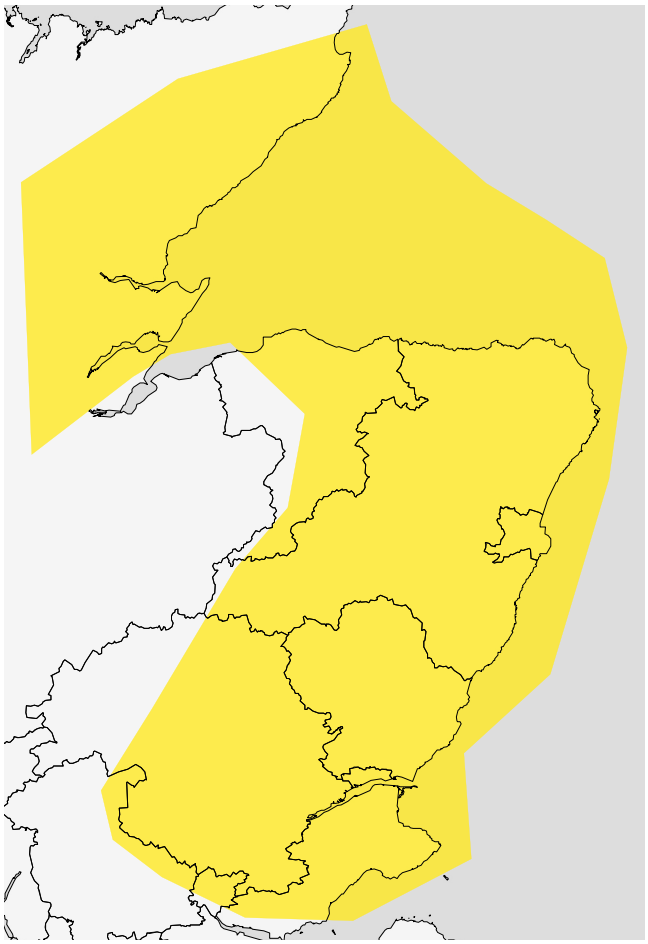
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
00:00 Sun 4 Sep 2022 and
15:00 Sun 4 Sep 2022



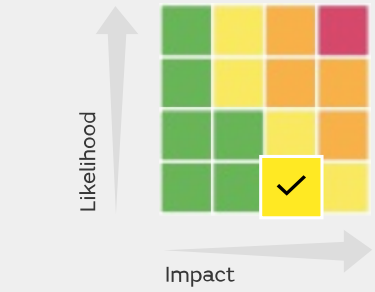
Rain, heavy at times, may cause some travel disruption and, in a few places, flooding.

What to expect

- There is a small chance that homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- There is a small chance of fast flowing or deep floodwater causing danger to life
- Where flooding occurs, there is a slight chance of delays or cancellations to train and bus services
- Spray and flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- There is a small chance that some communities will become cut off by flooded roads
- There is a slight chance of power cuts and loss of other services to some homes and businesses

Further details

Spells of heavy rain developing on Saturday night persist through Sunday morning before gradually clearing northwards later on Sunday. The heaviest rain is expected during the early hours of Sunday and Sunday morning, with the highest rainfall totals building up over east and southeastward facing coasts, hills and mountains. Here 40 to 60 mm of rain is likely to fall quite widely with as much as 60 to 80 mm falling in a few places.



Very low likelihood of medium impacts
